IN THE LEGISLATURE

The legislature will conclude its session this week after having been in session since February 2nd. Up till last Friday, a total of 95 bills had been introduced. At the session in 1921, a total of 97 bills were passed. Since Thursday last three sessions a day have been held, in order to expedite business and conclude this week.

Considerable interest during the week centered in the liquor amendments introduced by Hon. Mr. Brownlee, providing means for stricter enforcement of the liquor act. These amendments were passed on Thursday, R. C. Edwards, Calgary, introduced an amendment to provide for a plebiscite within a year, on sale of beer but this was defeated by an overwhelming vote. The liquor amendments occasioned a long debate, in which many members placed their views on the liquor act on record.

Provisions have been introduced into the wild lands tax act which will make it possible to remove from wild land taxation, lands found to be unfit for cultivation or pasturage. Enclosed land leased for grazing is also removed from the scope of the act.

The new women's institutes act which puts all women's organizations on the same footing with respect to extension work carried on by this branch of the agricultural department, has been passed by the house after considerable debate.

During discussion on amendments Mr. Brownlee made the announcement that the government was asking a survey of the whole question of child welfare work, and would likely have new suggestions to offer at the next session of the house.

A new married women's act has been introduced giving a married woman the same property rights and responsibilities as an unmarried woman.

Amendments to the school assessment ordinance will provide that school assessments will be made in future on the basis of the equalized assessment in municipalities, instead of the former system of acreage basis.

On Friday afternoon the house passed a resolution from Mr. Sparks of Wetaskiwin, which was previously introduced and withdrawn, and re-introduced.

This urged a resolution by the Dominion government of all farm stock and equipment held by soldier farmers under the land settlement scheme, at present replacement costs, and that the indebtedness of these soldier farmers in this respect be fixed on that basis, due allowances being made for sums already paid by the soldiers. An amendment introduced by Capt. Brown that the provincial government should bear half of the loss in difference between purchase price and present value, was defeated.

Further amendments to the irrigation districts act provide that proceedings in connection with the tax recovery act with respect to lands in irrigation districts shall be in the hands of the authorities of the irrigation districts.

MRS MCCLUNG WOULD TAX MILLINERY

UNPOPULAR WITH THE MARRIED MEMBERS

Edmonton, March 28.—With Mrs. Nellie McClung, Liberal, Edmonton, proposing a tax on expensive millinery and suits, in favor of the proposed increase in the proposed increase in the insurance tax from one per cent of the premiums to two per cent, and G. A. Foster, U.F.A., Hamilton, suggesting as an alternative, a tax of $1.50 on each liquor prescription, it looked like a hard session Monday afternoon for that much maligned and long suffering individual, the man in the street, otherwise known as the common people.

However, when the hon. member to a vote, Mrs. McClung had the privilege of being the one solitary supporter of her amendment, and Mr. Foster did not go so far as to propose his suggestion in the form of an amendment, so the common people took another long breath. The insurance tax was passed, by a very

The Railway Program

Bills have been introduced by the provincial minister of railways providing for the construction of a little less than forty miles of new line.

The Lacombe and Northwestern, which now extends from Lacombe to eight miles beyond Rimbey, is to be extended another eleven and a half, the cost being placed at $25,000. This will bring it close to Pigeon Lake. No doubt it will be eventually brought into Edmonton, and when completed it should have sufficient traffic to make it no longer a burden to the government. The new country now being opened up is well settled and productive and will make the operation problem an easier one, while at the same time proving of much benefit to the farmers served.—Edmonton Journal.

Asker News

March 27th.
The debating club of the U.F.A. had a good entertainment and debate with a large audience in attendance on Monday. The debaters were all in good form, and many an incident relative to country and city life was brought forth at the different sides of the resolution came forth. P. Paulsen and Miss Johnsen contributed soliloquies, H. Paulsen and a number of the pupils of the school gave recitations, and a hop drill by eight girls concluded a nice evening's entertainment. There were a number of visitors from Macleod and Water Glen.

C. Paulsen arrived home from his three months' trip to the coast cities last Wednesday. He reports spending a pleasant winter. Mrs. Paulsen is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Shaw, at Edmonton before returning home.

A large number of friends gathered at the Havelock home last Sunday in honor of Mrs. Hilma Krafting's birthday.

H. Elia invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson last Friday evening and spent the night at the wheat table.

Quite a commotion was caused in our quiet little burg last week when we found a quartette of coons had arrived in our midst. They were permitted to remain here, however, on condition, that they give an entertainment in the near future. They were very generous in their promises of monologues, duets, jokes, songs, and numberless self-deprecating stunts. They were favored by the appearance also of a stranded company of artists from Broadway, who kindly consented to assist them with a miniature play. Come and spend the evening with them. Asker Hall is the place. Friday evening, April 7 is the date. Eight o'clock is the time. Admission—Gents, 50c; ladies, 25c and children, 10c. This will be the last event of the season. Keep the date open.

San Francisco, March 28.—The first direct testimony linking the case of Arlene with the death of Miss Virginia Rapp was given today in this afternoon in the trial for manslaughter by Miss Virginia Briggs, secretary for Dr. Francis Wakefield at whose sanatorium the actress died. With the testimony of Miss Briggs the state rested its case.

COALITION GROUP WINS LABOUR PARTY ROUTED IN NEW SOUTH WALES

Vancouver, March 28.—A special dispatch to the Vancouver Province from Sydney, Australia, says that indications from early returns received in the elections are that labor has been routed in the New South Wales contest. Counting under the proportional representation system is complicated and takes considerable time, but Mr. Fuller, coalition leader, is assured that his majority in the house will be 12.

Gifts That Last

Easter, festival of spring is everywhere a time of adornment. Nature provides new dress for every growing thing; the sky is more brightly blue, the birds are gayly feathered.

Personal adornment at Easter is natural and in harmonious keeping with this season of gladness, and the bit of jewelry or some little accessory of dress becomes a part of the Easter costume. The setting of the Easter table also suggests lustrous silver and glass to fittingly accompany the joyous hues of springtime flowers.

A movement is on foot among some of our farmers to have a day set apart for the purpose of exterminating gophers. It has been suggested to have the district divided and organized so that each one in his respective district can take part in the hunt. This includes the townspeople as well. Farmers should give this consideration and bring the matter up at their local U.F.A. meetings.

Asker

Mr and Mrs T. B. Phillips entertained the Ladies' Aid Society on Thursday. A successful business meeting and pleasant time was spent by all.

Miss Edith Stahelhardt returned home last Thursday from Duluth, Minn., where she has spent about five months with her sister.

Mr and Mrs J. E. Wright are back on the ranch. They intend to manage the ranch under their own hands this season. Mr and Mrs Maier and family are preparing to move away soon. They have been charged of Mr Wright's place for the last three years.

O. C. Karschberg returned home last Saturday. He has had a pleasant three months' sojourn at the Pacific coast, visiting at Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle, and about two weeks at Oakland, California, with his sister. He is planned to be home in Ponoka and district, in Alberta however. The real people live there, he insists.

A large crowd attended R. C. Nelson's sale. Auctioneer Vold was at the block and brought down the hammer at very good prices for a great number of things. Horses and livestock did not bring as much as implements, etc. Poultry sold at $2.00 per bird.

Rev. Lee conducted services to a very large attendance last Sunday. The men's choir rendered a much appreciated voluntary before closing of the service.

H. Paulsen returned from Edmonton on Friday, after spending a week with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr and Mrs J. Maier.

H. E. Krefling spent Thursday at the conference at Edmonton last week.

Mrs Krefling, etc., is getting along rather better these last days, and we hope she will soon be well again.

SILVER WEDDING

A rather unusual but pleasant event took place Sunday, March 19, when the congregation assembled at the hall immediately after service, and invited Mr and Mrs Hoyak and their family to partake of a luncheon planned in their honour. The occasion was the celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. They were seated at a lovely table laden with good things and surrounded by their family of fifteen children, all living and present. R. Vold presided as toast master. In opening he paid a beautiful tribute to Mr and Mrs Hoyak as pioneers of the district, and the efficient way at home and in the community, as mother and father they had reared this—the largest family in the district. They have weathered all storms and come through the hardest strife with success. Mr Vold then called Rev. Lee to make a presentation speech in behalf of the community. In a few well-chosen words in honour of the occasion he presented the worthy couple with a beautiful tray three pieces silver service and tray, half a dozen knives and forks and a cream ladle all in the "Arms pattern" silver. As the feasting was nearing the end, Mr T. B. Phillips, Mr O. Edin Mrs Phillips, and Mr O. C. Kraft gave short speeches of appreciation of Mr and Mrs Hoyak. They were followed by a solo, the beautiful old "Home Sweet Home," rendered by Miss Johannsen. The choir interspersed the remaining social time by a couple of "old favorites" and the gathering broke up for their respective homes by wishing their guests many happy returns, and sincerely hoping to gather again twenty-five years hence in honour of their golden wedding.
